

Georgia M. Veach

Georgia May Veach, 68, of Clarinda, died Oct. 10, 2002 at the Clarinda Regional Health Center. She was born July 24, 1934 in Atlantic to Joseph Emmett and Mary (Frink) Linfor. She attended school in the Atlantic area and earned a GED. She then studied to become a licensed practical nurse, graduating from St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing in Cedar Rapids in 1956. She married Darrell Veach on Oct. 16, 1956 in Shenandoah. She worked in the nursing field until her retirement in 1982 from the Clarinda Mental Health Institute. She was a member of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Clarinda.

Mrs. Veach was preceded in death by her parents, husband in 1984, sisters Mary Ann Logue, Sadie Faye in infancy and Marcia Erlacher, brothers Larry Linfor and William Linfor.

Survivors include her sons and spouses John and Lori Veach of Clarinda and Jeff Veach and friend Sharon and family of Atlantic, two grandchildren, a great-grandson; Marilyn Hayes of Clarinda and Cindy Boeyink of Atlantic, who were considered daughters; siblings and spouses Myrtle Hughes of Atlantic, Inez and Don Abel of Walnut, Lois Schmitt of Corning, Joe Linfor Jr. of Greeley, Colo., Dennis Linfor of Lewis, David and Judy Linfor of Eufalla, Ala., Rick and Kathy Linfor and John and Mona Linfor, all of Atlantic; sister-in-law Kathy McCoy of Shenandoah, and dear friend Judy Gallagher.

Funeral services were Oct. 14 at Walker-Merrick Funeral Home in Clarinda with the Rev. Mark Wright officiating. Burial was in Rose Hill Cemetery in Shenandoah. Memorials may be directed to Trinity Presbyterian Church in Clarinda. Walker-Merrick Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.