Vera F. Malloy

Vera Fern Malloy, the daughter of Vern and Frances (Graham) Smith was born June 26, 1905, in Kearney, Nebraska, and passed away September 9, 2001, in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Growing up on a small acreage near Kearney, Vera attended school in the Kearney school system. After high school she graduated from beautician's school in Omaha, Nebraska. She then owned and operated the first beauty shop in Shenandoah where she offered the first permanent wave machine in the area.

Vera met and married E.B. "Mac" Malloy on August 20, 1927 and to this union, two children, Molly and Patrick, were born. She then became a homemaker, staying at home taking care of her family. She was known to be a wonderful cook and homemaker.

Some hobbies Vera enjoyed were painting, crocheting and flower arranging. One of her favorite pastimes was traveling the Midwest with her friends, "The Bead Girls," and collecting antiques. She was a member of the Shenandoah Art Guild, charter member of Shenandoah Home and Garden Club and Meta Grada Study Club.

Preceding Vera in death were her parents; her husband, Mac; son, Jack; brothers, Archie, Earl and Ray Smith; and sisters, Beulah Stonecipher and Eileen Kelley.

Survivors include her daughter, Molly Winegardner and husband, Jim, of Shenandoah; son, Patrick Malloy and wife, Susan, of Marshalltown, Iowa; granddaughters, Frankie Winegardner and husband, Randy Cram, of Clear Lake, Iowa, Susie Winegardner of Omaha, Nebraska, Jenny Winegardner of Bayfield, Colorado, Jackie Pritts and husband, Tim, of Kearney, Connie Beck and husband, John, of Minden, Nebraska; grandson, Michael Malloy of Ames, Iowa; and six great grandchildren, Colin and Kelly Cram, Melanie and Erika Beck, and Blake and Adam Pritts; plus other relatives and friends.
