

“A Human Life and A Flower”

A Human Life is similar to a Flower
Happens to be a historical fact we all know,
We both are results of tiny seeds
When a sower went forth to sow.

The fruit of a Flower is it's bloom
It's beauty and sweetness, we wish to compare,
The fruit of a Human is Love and Service
Honesty and Integrity that we share.

Your personality blooms each time you smile
It generates wisdom in what you do and say,
Then our lives seem so enriched
Each time you pass our way.

A flower is liberal with it's affection
To every home and family,
It even shares it's sweetness
With a busy honey bee.

When you show your sweetness to the World
God wishes you to wisely use your energy,
At the trail's end your reward will be flowers
At the Pearly Gates of Eternity.
