

Obituary

Betty Braley Lee, daughter of Raymond and Nancy Braley, was born on May 12, 1923 in Shenandoah, Iowa. Betty graduated from Shenandoah High School with the Class of 1941. On November 27, 1941, she was united in marriage with Elvis W. Lee in Maryville, Missouri, and she and Elvis made their home in Shenandoah their entire married life. Betty was an active member of the Presbyterian Church, serving as a Bible school teacher, was on the memorial committee, served as a deacon and cared for the altar flowers. She was a member of the Kappa Delta Club, Nautilus Club and a member of the Shenandoah Memorial Hospital Auxiliary for 40 years. Betty was an avid Iowa Hawkeye fan, loved the State of Iowa and the City of Shenandoah. She enjoyed ceramics, playing bridge, crocheting and embroidering.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Elvis, a daughter, Bonnye Bramble, and three brothers, Robert Braley, Frances (Red) Braley and Charles Braley and one sister-in-law Peggy Braley. She is survived by two sons, Robert Lee and his wife Joyce of Bettendorf, Iowa, Bruce Lee of Omaha, Nebraska, one daughter, Barbara Kelley and her husband Peter of Coralville, Iowa, and 12 grandchildren, Jennifer, Jessica and Matthew Lee, Beth, Brandon and Carmen Lee, Joshua and Sarah Bramble, Shawnelle Medina, Jennifer Kees, and Courtney and Katelyn Kelley, five great-grandchildren, Lucas, Nicholas, Olivia, Mia and Corie and one brother Eldon Braley of Peoria, Arizona. Betty is also survived by four special sisters-in-laws, Jean Braley, Peggy Braley, Martha Braley and Betty Lee Bicking, other relatives and many friends.
