The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Audrey L. Phipps

Audrey Lee Phipps, age 85, the daughter of Henry Francis and Della Blanche (Ingram) Colwell was born February 12, 1921, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away May 15, 2006, in Shenandoah.

Growing up in Shenandoah, Audrey was the fifth of nine children. As a member of the Tabernacle Church she was baptized in the Nishnabotna River. At the age of 15 Audrey started working at various jobs through the years. Some were the Shenandoah Nurseries and Spencer's Sweet Shop.

Audrey had two children, a son Dale Hunter and a daughter, Mary Bruce. In 1973 she was united in marriage to Carol Phipps. After their retirement they enjoyed traveling in their fifth wheel trailer around the country with their dog, Ginger. They wintered in Arizona and returned to their home in Council Bluffs in the spring. Their summers were enjoyed by camping and fishing in the Southwest Iowa region.

After Carol's death in 1985, Audrey returned to Shenandoah to live out her life amongst family and friends. She bought a yellow Mustang, which became her pride and joy. She was a long time member of the Eagle's Auxiliary and made it her business to keep things lively at the "round table". She also enjoyed her trips to the casinos in Council Bluffs.

Preceding Audrey in death were her parents; husband; three sisters, Sarah Phipps, Judy Casteel and Ethel Linquist; and two brothers, Bert and Don Colwell.

Survivors include her son and daughter-in-law, Dale and Linda Hunter of Miami, Florida; daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Johnny Fauria of Garnerville, Nevada; sister, and brother-in-law, Arlis and Kenneth Baucom of Shenandoah; brothers and sisters-in-law, Marion and Dorothy Colwell of Imogene, Iowa, and Silas and Penny Colwell of Clarinda, Iowa. Also surviving are five grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; plus many nieces, nephews and friends.
