The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Rex Castle

John Rex Castle, the son of John Henry and Alice (Aldrich) Castle, was born August 5, 1915 in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away May 16, 2002, in Shenandoah.

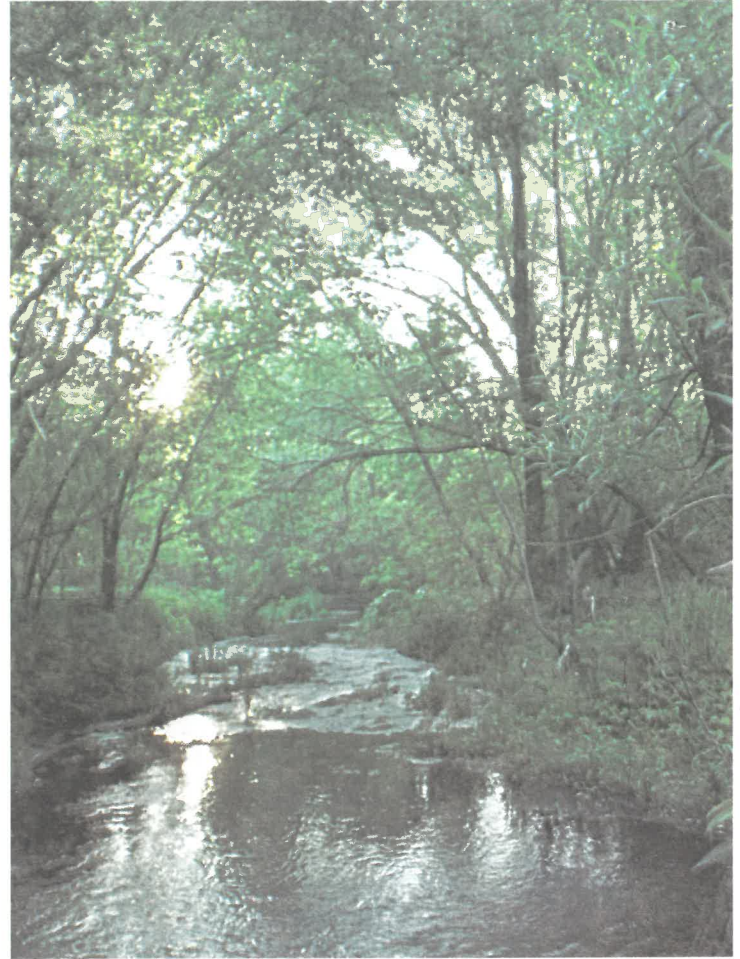

Growing up in Shenandoah, Rex received his education at the Prairie Glen Country School and in the Shenandoah School System. On December 24, 1937, in Rock Port, Missouri, Rex was united in marriage to Alma Solon. To this union, three children, Terry, John and Sue were born.

Rex served his country during World War II and after the war, returned to Shenandoah where he was in charge of organizing and starting Company E for the Iowa National Guard. He spent 30 years serving his country. Rex spent most of his working years farming in Southwest Iowa. He enjoyed being outdoors and spending time hunting and fishing.

Preceding Rex in death were his parents; son, John Castle; sister, Vivian Castle; and brothers, Dale and Wayne Castle.

Survivors include his wife, Alma, of Shenandoah; son and daughter-in-law, Terry Castle and Karen Garner of Farragut, Iowa; daughter, Sue Dusterhoft, of Lone Tree, Iowa; grand-daughters, Rebecca and Christina Castle of Farragut; step grandsons, Brian Dusterhoft of Coralville, Iowa and Jason Dusterhoft of Austin, Texas; brother, Jay Castle of Florida; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
