Obituary

Harry M. Bredensteiner, Jr., son of Harry M. and Vera (Mitchell) Bredensteiner, was born on September 5, 1924, at the family farm home near Manti in Fremont County and passed away on July 11, 2000, at Western Hills Care Center in Lakewood, Colorado, following a short illness. He was 75 years of age. Harry attended elementary school in a one room country school house. He attended Shenandoah High School where he lettered in track, long distance running, won oratorical awards and grew to love reading. He graduated from Shenandoah High School with the Class of 1942. He attended Nebraska Wesleyan where he was elected to the Plainsman Players in 1943. He also attended Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa. He served with the United States Navy during World War II. He worked for United Air Lines in Denver, Colorado, retiring after 30 years. Harry approached life with a passion. His faith was important to him and he attended church regularly. His love of reading continued and he read the Denver newspaper from cover to cover daily. He was an active member of the Democratic Party, volunteered for the Audubon Society, the Denver Zoo and the Denver Arts Council. He traveled to Europe, hiked the mountains when healthy and always had season tickets for the Denver Broncos. Harry was a generous man, sending special cards and gifts to his mother Vera during her life time and continued his generosity with his great-niece and great-nephews. Memorials may be given to the Shenandoah High School Drama Department.

Harry was preceded in death by his parents and a brother Kay. He is survived by his sister-in-law, Evelyn Bredensteiner, a niece, Julie Barnes and her husband Russ, a nephew, Jeff Bredensteiner, great-nephews, Grant Barnes and A. J. Bredensteiner, and a great-niece, Molly Bredensteiner, all of Omaha.
