

Stephen Everett McIntire the son of Roy E. and Eathyl Viola (Duey) McIntire was born at Union County, Iowa on April 22, 1931 and passed away at Omaha, Nebraska on Tuesday, December 16, 2003.

Stephen lived in Adams and Union County, Iowa most of his teenage years. He later moved to Creston, Iowa with his parents and brothers, out of high school. He worked for the S & L Clothing Store in Creston, Iowa. In February of 1952 he was drafted into the U.S. Army serving until 1954. After returning from the service he lived with his older brother, Lloyd from Newton, Iowa and worked for Maytag, later working for Younkers Department Store in Des Moines, Iowa. At Younkers his job was doing the window displays. One night he came home with a big beautiful Christmas tree for his brother Johnny's six little children to enjoy; they enjoyed that tree for many years to come, showing how thoughtful Stephen was. He was always thinking of others and enjoyed caring for his nieces and nephews. On June 16, 1962 he was united in marriage to Marian Alice at Creston, Iowa. He and Marian lived in Shenandoah for 41 years. While in Shenandoah Stephen worked for Montgomery Wards, Veta Mix, Redfield and Sullivan Furniture Store, Pamida Store, Connie Stange and Whitehill's Food Mart.

Preceding him in death were his parents, and infant brother, and older brother, Lloyd Melvin McIntire

Survivors include his wife Marian Alice of Shenandoah, Iowa; his mother in law Wilma Noe of Maryville, Missouri; two brothers, Johnny McIntire and wife Wanda, of Afton, Iowa and Raymond Lowell McIntire and wife Janie Sue of Kansas City, Missouri; also a sister in law Vivian McIntire; nieces nephews and friends.
