Lysle Marion Kiper, son of Albert and Ethel (Hall) Kiper, was born on January 1, 1927, in Clarinda, Iowa, and passed away at Methodist Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska, on March 23, 2002. He was 75 years of age. He lived in the Shambaugh and Clarinda area where he attended schools. Lysle served his country during World War II, enlisting in the Army on April 13, 1945 and being discharged on December 31, 1946. Upon Lysle's return from duty he went to work for Puritan Laundry in Shenandoah where he met his future wife. On September 27, 1947, Lysle was united in marriage to Lois Marvis Falk in Red Oak, Iowa. Following their marriage they made their home in Shenandoah. Lysle later worked for the City of Shenandoah in the capacity of Sexton for Rose Hill Cemetery from 1957 through 1972. Lysle and his wife Lois owned the L & L Curiosity Shop and Lysle's Antiques until his retirement in 1996. Lysle enjoyed antiques, reading, hunting, fishing ("Feeshing"), and playing guitar.

Preceding Lysle in death were his parents, three brothers, Wilbert, Arthur and Delbert Kiper; three sisters, Pauline Kiper, Frances Kiper and Violet Beery; and three grandchildren, Timothy L. Gomel, Trevor W. McIntyre and David L. Kiper. Survivors include his wife, Lois of Essex, IA; three daughters, Connie Gomel of Shenandoah, Iowa, Cheryl McIntyre of Essex, IA, and Susie Erhart and her husband Randy of Shenandoah, IA; one son, Greg Kiper of Clarinda, IA; brother, Rev. Dennis Kiper and his wife Vera of Portsmouth, OH; sister, Ruth Fender of Shenandoah; 13 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren; along with other relatives and many friends.
