

Obituary

Glendale Perry was born April 23, 1919 in Westboro, Missouri to Corda Aaron Perry and Nora Etta Hunsaker. He passed away, July 3, 2005 at the Elm Heights Care Center in Shenandoah at the age of 86.

Glen's childhood was spent in the Blanchard and Westboro areas. Prior to departing for the military, Glen moved with his parents to a farm east of Braddyville. He received his education in the Atchison County Schools. From 1942 - 1945, Glen served with the Army Signal Corps Company. He saw overseas duty in Europe during WWII, including Normandy. He was awarded five Bronze Stars while serving his country.

On December 14, 1947, Glen was united in marriage to Doris Madeline Reed at the Braddyville United Methodist Church in Braddyville, Iowa. The couple resided on a farm at Norwich. Following their residence in Norwich, the couple moved to the Northboro area where they lived until 2003. Their two children, Gilbert and Deborah were raised at their Northboro home. Glen spent his life doing the farming work he loved.

Glen was a longtime member of the Northboro United Methodist Church and also belonged to Farm Bureau. One of his favorite pastimes was to follow the various school and community activities of his children.

Glen is preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Claudie, Carl, Edwin, Bobby, Darrell and Don; sisters, Mabel Nelson, Lefa Chapman, Ethel Duncan, Velma Gell and Alice Klute. He is survived by his wife, Doris; brother, Olin and wife Darlene; son and daughter-in-law, Gilbert and Clare Perry of Beaverton, Oregon; daughter and son-in-law, Deborah and Jim Schoenfelder of Iowa City, Iowa; grandchildren; Ellen Perry of Hillsboro, Oregon, Reed Perry of Bothell, Washington, Meghan Perry of Ashland, Oregon, Scott and Jennifer Jensen of White Bear, Minnesota, and Sarah Jensen of Iowa City, Iowa; a host of other relatives and friends.

Services entrusted to:
Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home
Shenandoah, Iowa