Charles Wayne Lorimor

Charles Wayne Lorimor, the son of Jesse (Jim) and Kathryn (Bateman) Lorimor, was born August 26, 1915, on the family farm in Fremont County, Iowa and passed away September 16, 1999, at Garden View Care Center in Shenandoah, Iowa.

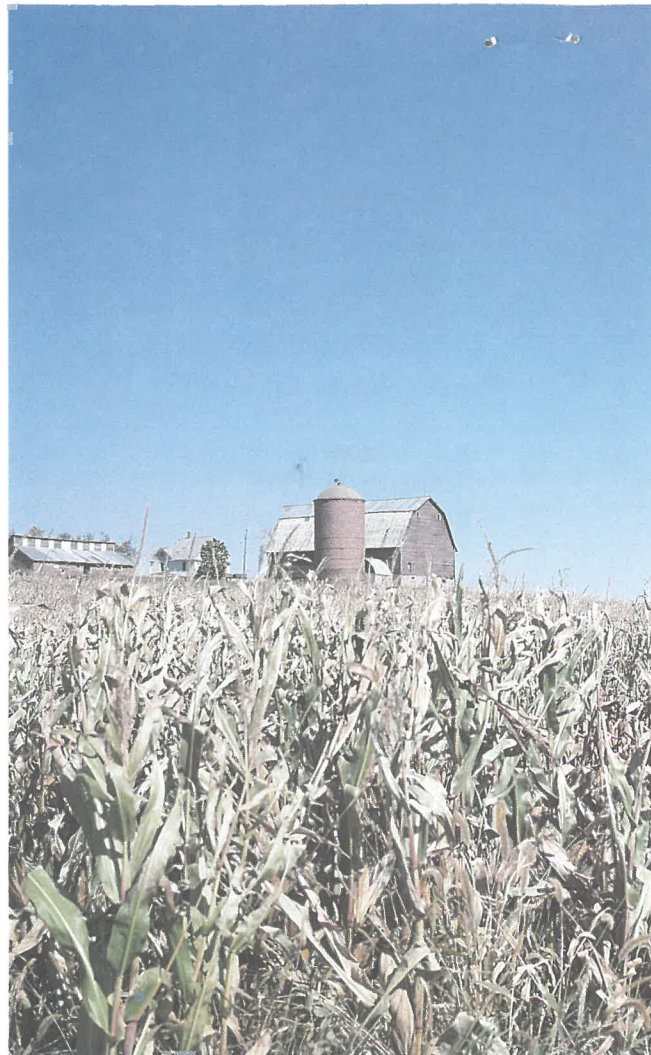

Wayne was the next to the youngest of nine children. He was a farmer and resident of Fremont County for most of his life. Prior to World War II he worked for four years at Martin Aircraft in Baltimore, Maryland. During the war, Wayne served in the U.S. Navy for four years while being stationed in Florida and in the Philippines. Wayne was united in marriage to Doris Parrish in 1948. To this union three sons, Larry, Gary and Don were born. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church and the American Legion Post 88 of Shenandoah and the Woodworking Club of Sun City, Arizona.

Preceding Wayne in death were his parents, brothers, Joe, Johnny, Harold, Willis, and George and sisters Elizabeth (Lizzie) Matthews and Edith Howard.

Survivors include: his wife, Doris, of rural Far-ragut, Iowa, three sons, Larry and his wife Kathy and their children, Lisa, Heather, Heidi and Emily, of Plainfield, IL, Gary and his wife Judy and their children, David, Nathan, Sarah, and Rachel of Omaha, NE, and Don and his wife Laurel, and their children, Ethan and Sean from Port Orchard, WA, brother, Lloyd Lorimor of Shenandoah, mother-in-law, Mrs. Nell Parrish, of Shenandoah plus several cousins, nieces and nephews.
