The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Doris E. Lorimor

Doris Eleanor Lorimor, the daughter of Joseph A. and Nellie M. (Young) Parrish, was born March 12, 1917, near Imogene, Iowa, and passed away May 23, 2004, at her home in rural Farragut, Iowa. She was 87 years of age.

Growing up on a farm near Imogene, Iowa, Doris graduated from Shenandoah High School in 1935. She also graduated from Peru State Teachers College in Peru, Nebraska and went on to teach school for about ten years in Tabor, Malvern, Council Bluffs, and Anderson, Iowa. She enjoyed teaching and interacting with children.

On February 8, 1948, Doris was united in marriage to Wayne Lorimor and to this union three children, Larry, Gary, and Don were born. After their marriage they lived for over fifty years on the family farm where they raised their children, and where she presently was living. While they were active farming, Doris assisted Wayne with the farm work, raising their family and attending a large garden. She was also known for her fresh home baked bread. Since 1980, they enjoyed spending winters at their home in Sun City, Arizona. Doris was a member of the United Methodist Church in Shenandoah for over 75 years. In Sun City, she was a member of the China Painting Club where she painted some unusual pieces which she shared with her family and friends.

Preceding Doris in death were her parents, Joseph and Nellie Parrish; husband, Wayne, who died in 1999; and brother, Carrol Parrish.

Survivors include her sons and daughters-in-law, Larry and Kathy of Plainfield, Illinois, Gary and Judy of Omaha, Nebraska, and Don and Laurel of Port Orchard, Washington. Also surviving are sisters-in-law, Gladys Lorimor of Shenandoah, Iowa, and Frances Parrish of New Castle, Delaware; and ten grandchildren, Lisa, Heather, Heidi, Emili, David and Audra, Nathan, Sarah, Racheal, Ethan, and Sean; plus other relatives and friends.
