~~~~~

*God looked around his garden, and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you, and lifted you to rest.
He also knew in Heaven you would never hurt again.
He saw the road was getting tough, and the hills harder to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered "Peace be Thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
If tears could build a staircase and memories a lane,
We'd walk all the way to heaven and bring you home again.*

Buddy L. Anderson

Buddy Leland Anderson, the son of Archie C. and Nita (Bradway) Anderson, was born August 26, 1931, in Glenwood, Iowa, and passed away April 13, 2004, at the Shenandoah Memorial Hospital in Shenandoah, Iowa.

The early years of Bud's life was spent growing up in the Glenwood and Malvern, Iowa area. He received his education at the Peaceville Country School and the Malvern Community Schools. On May 9, 1954, Bud was united in marriage to Frances Shafer and to this union, Michael, Sherrie, Bruce and Brent were born.

As a young man, Bud spent time working for Nelson Dairy in Glenwood and also painting houses. In 1956 he moved his family to Shenandoah where he was employed by the Shenandoah Memorial Hospital from 1956 until his retirement in 1996. After his retirement, he worked part time at HyVee where you were always greeted by his friendly smile.

Bud enjoyed working jigsaw puzzles, collecting old toys, having coffee and visits with his friends and eating breakfast at Al's. He never knew a stranger and always put others ahead of himself. He was a hard worker, and would never ask someone to do something which he wouldn't do himself. Bud enjoyed sitting on his deck, which his sons built for him, but most of all he loved his family and enjoyed being with them.

Preceding Bud in death were his parents; brothers, Ray, Floyd, Herbert and Bill Anderson; and a sister, Ruth Stacey.

Survivors include his wife, Frances of Shenandoah, Iowa; children and their spouses, Michael and Shelley Anderson, Sherrie Anderson, Bruce and Shelly Anderson, and Brent and Cindy Anderson; brother, Richard Anderson and wife, Mary, of Malvern; sisters, Marie Topp and husband, Orville, of Greenville, Texas and Jane Miller and husband, Lewis, of Wahoo, Nebraska. Also surviving are grandchildren, Kristin Wright, Mitchell and Megan Anderson; great grandchildren, Michaela, Trevor and Alex Wright; step grandchildren, Cathy, Susanne and Rob; and step great grandchildren, Cayley and Cain; plus other relatives and friends.
