

Obituary

Lloyd William Lorimor, son of Jim Alexander and Catherine Susan Bateman Lorimor, was born on November 4, 1918, in Fremont County, Iowa, and passed away at Garden View Care Center in Shenandoah on June 21, 2001. He was 82 years of age. He was a farmer all of his life and also did custom work and trucking. On September 25, 1948, he was united in marriage with Hazel Berlin at the First United Methodist Church in Shenandoah. Lloyd was a good natured, hard working farmer. His first love was his family and his main interest was farming. He was a loving and considerate husband, father, son, brother, neighbor and friend. He always treated people with fairness and respect. He especially liked to assist people who had special needs for his talents and he always seemed to find time for doing special tasks for others. Lloyd was a member of the First United Methodist Church, and he and his wife Hazel served as the church school secretaries for over 30 years. He was also a member of the Farm Bureau and served on the board, was a Walnut Creek trustee, a member of the Professional Farmers of America, as well as a member of the IOOF and Rebekah Lodges.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his brothers and sisters, his wife Hazel and one grandson. Lloyd is survived by his daughter Mary Hartfield of Shenandoah, three grandsons, Bill and Caleb of Des Moines, Iowa, and Lincoln of Shenandoah, one granddaughter, Heather Spaur and her husband Jason of Fort Bragg, N. C., one great-granddaughter, Sarah Spaur, other relatives and many friends.

Following services at the cemetery, everyone is cordially invited to Fellowship Hall for a time of refreshments and fellowship.

Hackett-Livingston Funeral Home

Shenandoah, Iowa