

Obituary

Leila Laverne (Sapp) Hall, daughter of Herman and Mary (Link) Sapp, was born on February 21, 1920, in Warsaw, Missouri. She passed away on October 13, 2003, at the Garden View Care Center in Shenandoah. She had attained the age of 83 years, 7 months, 22 days. Leila was the oldest of eleven siblings.

On September 23, 1938, she was united in marriage to Lawrence Hall in Clinton, Missouri. To this union nine children were born. The family moved to Iowa in 1954. Most of Leila's time was spent caring for her family and home. She loved gardening and canning while at home. While residing at Garden View Care Center, she loved visiting with the residents. She also enjoyed crafts, bingo, going to the casino and playing cards at Garden View. She particularly enjoyed visits from family and friends.

Preceding Leila in death were her parents; husband; five brothers; three sisters; three sons; one granddaughter; and one great granddaughter. Survivors include her children, Wayne Hall and his wife Jan of Edwardsville, KS, Blanche Davis and her husband Jerry of Missouri City, TX, Mary Keesis and her husband Jess of Shenandoah, IA, Lela England and her husband Richard of Sweet Springs, MO, Gary Hall and his wife Bonnie of College Springs, IA, Donna Aldaz of Shenandoah, IA; 18 grandchildren; 20 great grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren; one sister, Ina Mae Breshears of Marshall, MO; one brother, Carlos Dean Sapp of Kansas City, MO; other relatives and many friends.