The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Virginia C. Lillie

Virginia Christine Lillie, the daughter of Seaman and Dorothy (Lovelace) Burgess, was born February 27, 1931, at Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and died April 3, 2003, in Omaha, Nebraska.

Growing up in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, Virginia attended school there graduating from the Hopkinsville High School. She was married to Raymond Williams in Hopkinsville, and to this union, David, Dale, Debora, Danny and Donna were born. After their marriage, they did a lot of traveling and lived in many states. They lived for several years in Oakland, California and in 1968 Virginia moved to Iowa living the remainder of her life in the Shenandoah, Iowa area. On February 27, 1971, in Shenandoah, Virginia was united in marriage to Wayne Lillie.

Virginia enjoyed working at various jobs through the years but had fond memories of her employment at Henry Fields in Shenandoah and Natures in Red Oak, Iowa. She enjoyed playing cards, sewing and was known to be a wonderful cook. Her favorite thing to do was to spend time with her grandchildren as her family was so very important to her.

Preceding Virginia in death were her parents; husband, Wayne Lillie in 1989; son, Danny Williams; two brothers and one sister.

Survivors include her sons, David Williams and wife, Barbara, and Dale Williams and wife, Patty, all of Boise, Idaho; daughters, Debora Stogdill and husband, Alan, and Donna Rascon all of Shenandoah. Also surviving are stepdaughters, Rita Haskins and husband, Gary, of Shenandoah, Linda Price and husband, Rick, of Red Oak, Iowa, and Connie Chambers of Shenandoah; 19 grandchildren; 12 great grandchildren plus other relatives and friends.
