BEYOND THE SUNSET

*Should you go first and I remain,
to walk the road alone.
I'll live in memories garden, dear,
with happy days we've known.
In spring I'll wait for roses red, when faded, the lilacs blue.
In early fall when brown leaves fall,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.
Should you go first and I remain, for battles to be fought.
Each thing you've touched along the way will be a hallowed spot.
I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, tho blindly I may grope.
The memory of your helping hand
will buoy me on with hope.
Should you go first and I remain,
one thing I'll have you do:
Walk slowly down that long long path, for soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take,
so I may take the same.
For someday down that lonely road,
you'll hear me call your name.*

George M. Waldron

George Murrell Waldron, the son of James N. and Elizabeth M. (Spunaugle) Waldron, was born April 19, 1915, in Essex, Iowa, and passed away February 23, 2002, at the Montgomery County Hospital in Red Oak, Iowa.

George grew up on the family farm near Essex and started farming and helping his father at age seven. He received his education at the Centennial Country School west of Essex and spent his entire working years farming. On May 9, 1934, Rev. Edith Sterling united George in marriage to Virginia Wooden. To this union, Georgia Noladean, Marian Elizabeth, James Reed, Phillip Eugene, Tommy Dale, Gary C., Robert Lou, Sandra Kay and William Noland were born. George enjoyed his family, farming, fishing, hunting, cooking, and trapping in his younger years.

Preceding George in death were his parents; three sons, Phillip, Gary and Robert Waldron; brothers, Paul and Harold Waldron and a sister, Genevieve Reed.

Survivors include his wife, Virginia, of Villisca, Iowa; daughter, Noladean Waldron of Villisca; daughter, Marian E. Thomas and husband, Dale, of Coin, Iowa; son, James R. Waldron and wife, Sherry of Villisca; son, Tommy D. Waldron of Villisca; daughter, Sandra K. Knizley and husband, Eric of Coin; son, William N. Waldron and wife Vicki of Ft. Scott, Kansas; son, John W. Thomas of Villisca; eighteen grandchildren; thirty-five great grandchildren; five great-great grandchildren; plus other relatives and friends.
