The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Janice M. Thomas

Janice Marie Thomas, age 51, the daughter of Allan and Betty (Smith) Pederson, was born February 22, 1953, in San Mateo, California, and passed away January 14, 2005, at her home near Coin, Iowa.

Growing up in Half Moon Bay, California, Janice graduated from Half Moon Bay High School in 1971. On August 6, 1988, Janice was united in marriage to Kevin Thomas at Coin, Iowa.

Through the years Janice was employed at a day care and nursing home, but most of all she liked working at the Smores Restaurant in Red Oak, Iowa. She enjoyed cross stitching, reading, collecting jewelry, cooking for her family and flower arranging. She loved growing flowers around their home in the country. She had a beautiful singing voice and was known to light up a room with her smile. Janice was a member of the Assembly of God Full Tabernacle Church in Shenandoah.

Preceding Janice in death was her father. Survivors include her husband, Kevin Thomas of Coin, Iowa; children: Kenneth Jones and wife, Amber, of Waterloo, Iowa, Michelle Heitman and husband, Brad, of Malvern, Iowa, Matthew, Amanda and Kelsey Thomas of Coin; mother, Betty Pederson of Orland, California; brother, Mike Pederson and wife, Rose, of Soda Springs, California; sister, Kathy Coy of Orland, California; and three grandchildren, Mercedes and McKenzie Nissen and Shelby Heitman; other relatives and many friends.
