The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Marjorie M. Ross

Marjorie Catherine Mains Ross, the daughter of Charles A. and Pearl J. (Wilson) Mains, was born January 15, 1918 in Waterloo, Iowa and passed away on October 27, 2000 in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Marjorie lived her early years in Waterloo and Des Moines, Iowa. At the age of 12, Marjorie moved with her family to Louisville, Kentucky where she graduated from high school in 1935. She then attended Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa for two years before transferring to the University of Iowa in Iowa City, Iowa where she became a Pi Beta Phi and graduated in 1939.

While at the University, Marjorie met Robert S. Ross. They were married on July 20, 1940 in Louisville and made Shenandoah their permanent home. To this union, daughters Rebecca Ann, Nancy Louella and Barbara Jane were born.

Marjorie was a devoted wife and mother. She served on the Board of Directors of the City National Bank and at one time was a director on the board of the Shenandoah Public Library. She was a member of the Congregational Church, Book Club and Study Club. She enjoyed the piano, golf, poetry, and crossword puzzles. Marjorie had an avid interest in etymology, was fluent in French, and had an appreciation for many languages and cultures.

Preceding Marjorie in death were her parents and a brother, William Mains. She is survived by her husband Robert Ross of Shenandoah; daughters, Rebecca Ann Ritchey and husband, Michael, of Wichita, KS, Nancy Perry and husband, George, of Shenandoah, Barbara Omotani and husband, Les, of West De Moines, IA; grandchildren, Gregory Ritchey, Elaine Ritchey Ashbrook, P.J. Perry and Geoffrey Perry; and three great grandchildren.
