Don I. Irvin

Don I. Irvin, the son of Ed and Hazel (Smith) Irvin, was born March 22, 1918, in Blanchard, Iowa, and departed this life November 7, 1999, in Clarinda, Iowa.

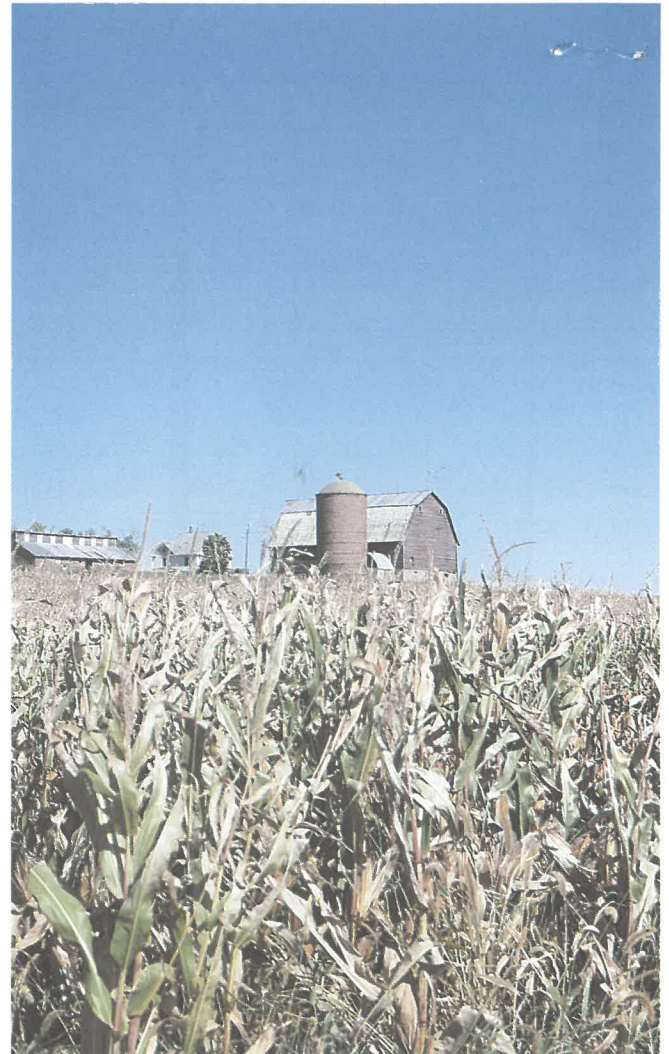

Don was born and raised on a farm near Blanchard and graduated from Coin High School with the class of 1936. He was united in marriage to Helen Young of Farragut, Iowa, on August 22, 1940, and to this union, two sons, Ron and Steve, were born. Don and Helen lived and farmed near Blanchard for 59 years.

Being a very active 4-H member, Don was a leader and volunteer serving the youth of Page County. He served as a member of the Extension Council in Page County following Extension's independence from Farm Bureau. Don was active in soil conservation, serving as a Page County Soil District Commissioner. He was a lifetime member of the Coin United Methodist Church.

Preceding Don in death were his parents, Ed and Hazel Irvin.

Survivor's include his wife Helen of Blanchard; two sons, Ron Irvin and wife, Diana, of Marion, IA and Steve Irvin and wife, Debbie, of College Springs, IA; five grandchildren, Renae Irvin of Des Moines, IA, Lisa Irvin of Dayton, OH, Debby Pantini of Colesburg, IA, and Kyle and Katie Irvin of College Springs; an aunt, Veda McFarling of Tarkio, MO; and brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Howard and Zoe Young of Shenandoah, Iowa.
