Donald L. Trimmer, son of Charles and Thelma Wilds Trimmer, was born on February 2, 1940, in Glenwood, Iowa. He graduated from Glenwood High School and from business school in Omaha, Nebraska. He served six years in the Army and received an honorable discharge. On August 2, 1979, he was united in marriage with Sharon Reavis and they made their home in Shenandoah. He was a road surveyor, worked at his father's gas station and was a parttime mail carrier in Glenwood. Don enjoyed car rides, going to church, going out for coffee and dinner and watching his favorite TV programs, but most of all he loved his family's activities.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Brenda Hunt. He has survived by his wife Sharon, step-daughter Angelina LaMour, granddaughter Ocean LaMour, all of Shenandoah, and a half-brother Chris Christinger of Grand Island, Nebraska, other relatives and many friends.
