

Judy Ann Johnson, the daughter of William and Marjy McCall Johnson was born on January 20, 1951 at Hamburg, Iowa and passed away on December 20, 2002 at Shenandoah, Iowa after a brief illness. Judy lived the first year of her life in Tabor, moving to Shenandoah where she would live the remainder of her life. She received her education in Shenandoah and at Yorktown Special Education School. She worked for many years for Nishna Productions in Shenandoah. Judy participated in Special Olympics and was a member of the Waubonsie Ramblers Campers Club. Judy loved country music, collecting banks, loved camping and children and collected Beanie Babies.

Preceding her in death was her grandparents, Arthur and Alice Johnson and grandfather, Gilbert McCall. Surviving includes her parents, Bill and Marjy Johnson of Shenandoah; grandmother Pauline McCall of Longmont, Co.; sisters, Joy Thompson and husband Richard of Shenandoah, Jeana Smith and husband Bob, of Shenandoah, Janet Johnson and husband Sam Hankins of Glenwood, IA.; nieces and nephews, Jami and Marcus McKinnon of Omaha, NE., Shawn and Shad Smith of Phoenix, AZ., Chad Thompson of Shenandoah, and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and many friends.