The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Bryce L. Johnson

Bryce Lee Johnson, the son of William Orville and Maude Estella (Smith) Johnson, was born November 4, 1930 in Shenandoah, Iowa and passed away November 19, 2000 in Omaha, Nebraska.

Growing up in Shenandoah, Bryce received his education from the Shenandoah school system. He also attended and graduated from Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs, Iowa.
