The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Wesley LeRoy (Roy) Miller

Roy Miller, the son of John W. and Thelma L. (McCool) Miller, was born August 8, 1927, in Atchison County, Missouri, and passed away November 22, 2002, in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Growing up in the Westboro and Rock Port, Missouri area, Roy received his education in a rural country school near Rock Port. On June 30, 1944, Roy was united in marriage to Barbara Jean Tomes at Atchison, Kansas. To this union David, Jennie and Joan were born. As a young man Roy was employed in construction and drove a truck. He quit trucking and moved his family to the Shenandoah area in order to spend more time with them. For several years, Roy was employed by Snyder and Select Motors, and later at Eaton Corporation, where he retired. Roy trained and shod horses to offset the expenses of the family horse hobbies. After retirement, he drove a truck part-time for Sterling McLaren. Roy enjoyed camping and fishing with family and friends.

Preceding Roy in death were his parents; his wife, Barbara; brothers, John and Charles Miller; sisters, Christina Curran and Fern Bruer.

Survivors include his son, David Miller and wife Angela, of Shenandoah; daughters and sons-in-law, Jennie and Frank Miller of St. James, Missouri, and Joan and Ron Helvie of Corning, Iowa; fourteen grandchildren, Wes, Jeff, John, Kelly, Scott, Merci, Gabe, Cassandra, Amanda, Jesse, Chad, Brian, Les and Allison; numerous great grandchildren; plus other relatives and friends.
