

Richard Dean Irvin, better known as Dick, was born on December 13, 1934 in rural Page County, Iowa near College Springs to George Elton and Frances Isabelle (Roberts) Irvin. As a young child he lived in Clarinda and New Market before moving to Shenandoah. While in high school he began working as a life guard and swim instructor at the Shenandoah Swimming Pool. He graduated from Shenandoah High School with the Class of 1953.

On December 29, 1957, he married JoDayle Moffet at the First Methodist Church in Shenandoah. They celebrated 62 years of marriage this past December. They were blessed with one son, Richard Randall (Randy) Irvin, who was born on April 20, 1960.

Dick started his career in finance with Iowa Finance Company in Perry, Iowa. He later advanced with the company to Fremont, Nebraska, Charles City, Iowa, Hannibal, Missouri and then back to Shenandoah with Associates Finance. He then worked at the Union State Bank in Winterset, Iowa and moved back again to Shenandoah with Security Trust and Savings Bank and retired from Bank Iowa.

He was a former member of the Charles City Junior Chamber of Commerce, Charter Member of the Winterset Optimist Club, and member of the Shenandoah American Legion Golf Course. He proudly accomplished 2 holes in one (Sept. 25, 2002 and Sept. 2, 2005) both on hole #8 before having to give up golf because of his health. Dick was a member of Shenandoah Elks Club #1122 and the Shenandoah First United Methodist Church.

Preceding Dick in death were his parents; son, Richard (Randy) Randall; two infant brothers at birth, Lowell and Gordon; sister, Delores Josephson Brooks; two brothers, Larry Irvin and his wife Marcella and Mike Irvin. He is survived by his wife, JoDayle Irvin; two grandchildren, Richard (Richey) Irvin and wife Mollie of Austin, AR and Chanel Payne and husband Robert of Fort Smith, AR; four great grandchildren, Kinley and Carlie Payne, Addison Baker and Richard Gray Irvin; brother, Charles Irvin and wife Joan of Shenandoah, IA; sisters-in-law, Connie Irvin of Shenandoah, IA and Alice Moffett of Camarillo, CA; daughter-in-law, Karin Wilcox Irvin and her children, Elizabeth, William and Laura; other relatives; and many friends.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

*Everyone is invited to join the family at the Shenandoah Elks Club
For a time of fellowship and food after the graveside service.*
