The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Marian L. Tyler

Marian Laura Tyler, the daughter of Edwin and Laura (Rainey) Benton, was born November 10, 1917, at Malvern, Iowa, and passed away December 14, 2002, at the Tucson Medical Center in Tucson, Arizona.

Growing up and attending school in Malvern, Marian graduated from high school in 1935. In 1936, Marian attended Iowa State College in Ames, Iowa and attended and graduated from Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa with a degree in Elementary Education. She taught school at Tabor Elementary in Tabor, Iowa and substituted in the Shenandoah schools. Marian was united in marriage to Robert Tyler on January 18, 1941, in Malvern and to this union, Linda and Richard were born. They lived in Creston, Iowa and Atlantic for a short time but moved back to Malvern until Robert returned from the U. S. Navy. In 1946, they moved to Shenandoah where they have lived ever since.

Marian was a member of the United Methodist Church, Eastern Star, P.E.O., Garden Club, Delta Delta Delta Sorority, Lady Shrinners and was a former member of the Nishna Valley Saddle Club. She enjoyed playing bridge, reading, and square dancing, sewing, traveling but especially following her grandchildren's activities.

Preceding Marian in death were her parents and brother, Robert Benton.

Survivors include her husband, Robert Tyler of Shenandoah; daughter Linda Tyler of Shenandoah; son Richard Tyler of Denver, Colorado; grandchildren Justin Tyler of Denver and Tiffany Schuetz of Savannah, Missouri; great grandchildren Corey, Laura, and Gabriel plus other relatives and many friends.
