

Carroll Lee Martin

Carroll Lee Martin, son of Charlie Owen and Eunice Irene Topham Martin was born on July 27, 1928, in Shenandoah, Iowa. He attended the Shenandoah public schools and graduated from Shenandoah High School with the Class of 1946. Following graduation he attended Graceland College and graduated in 1948. He then attended Iowa State College for two years. He was in the U. S. Naval Reserve during the Korean War. Carroll worked for Earl May Nursery Company in various locations including managing a store in Fremont, Nebraska. He spent several years in Colorado and operated a garden center in Greeley, Colorado. He returned to Iowa in 1969 to care for his father and operate the family farm near Randolph. Following his retirement from farming he worked for Earl May Nursery Company, moving back to Shenandoah in 1998. Carroll was a member of the RLDS Church, the Greater Shenandoah Historical Society, Nauvoo Historical Society and the John Whitmer Historical Association. He enjoyed history, genealogy, hunting and shooting.

He was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his brother and sister-in-law, Charles Wayne and Janet A. Martin of Lincoln, two nephews, Charles C. Martin of Lafayette, Colorado, and Edwin A. and Lori Martin and children Christian, Lauren and Andrew, all of Hartford, Connecticut

Following the service at the cemetery, everyone is cordially invited to fellowship hall for a time of refreshments and fellowship with the family.
