The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Lila L. Latta

Lila Lee Latta, age 80, the daughter of Merle and Emmer (Alley) Bartles, was born January 4, 1926, at Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away July 27, 2006, in Hurst, Texas.

After graduating from the Northboro, Iowa high school in 1943 Lila was united in marriage to Lloyd Latta, Jr. on June 10, 1944, in Shenandoah. To this union, Bart and Lanis were born.

As a wife of a military officer, Lila was able to travel to many places in the United States and overseas. She was an active life long member of the United Methodist Church and in recent years the Hope United Methodist Church in Marshalltown, Iowa. She especially enjoyed teaching Sunday school and belonging to the United Methodist Women having served as Past District President and Lay Leader in Fort Worth, Texas. She enjoyed belonging to the Grey Ladies at the Air Force Base Hospital in London, England. She was also instrumental in starting the Dr. Laubauch Center for Teaching English, to be taught as a second language in Tustin, California.

Lila loved her children and grandchildren, sharing in their many activities through the years.

Preceding Lila in death were her parents; and her brother-in-law, Jerry Trullinger.

Survivors include her son and daughter-in-law, Bart and Brenda Latta of Marshalltown; daughter and son-in-law, Lanis and Dr. Carlton Pittard of Bedford, Texas. Also surviving are grandchildren, Amy Loevy and husband, Walt, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, John Pittard and wife, Christina, of Colorado Springs, and Andrew Pittard of Bedford; two step grandchildren, Grant and wife Jill Pittard of Grapevine, Texas and Jan Pittard of Grapevine, Texas; four great grandchildren; and five step great grandchildren. Others surviving are sisters, Liva Eitzen and Loretta Trullinger from Marshalltown; plus many nieces, nephews and cousins.
