The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Mervin Morhain

Mervin Morhain, the son of Joseph and Nora (Nies) Morhain, was born May 19, 1909, in rural Page County, near Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away February 13, 2003, at his home in Shenandoah.

Growing up on a farm between Essex and Shenandoah, in Grant Township, Merv received his education at the Mount Hope Country School through the eighth grade and Shenandoah High School. On December 30, 1931, Merv was united in marriage to Alice Brown at Rock Port, Missouri and to this union, daughters, Darlene and Phyllis were born.

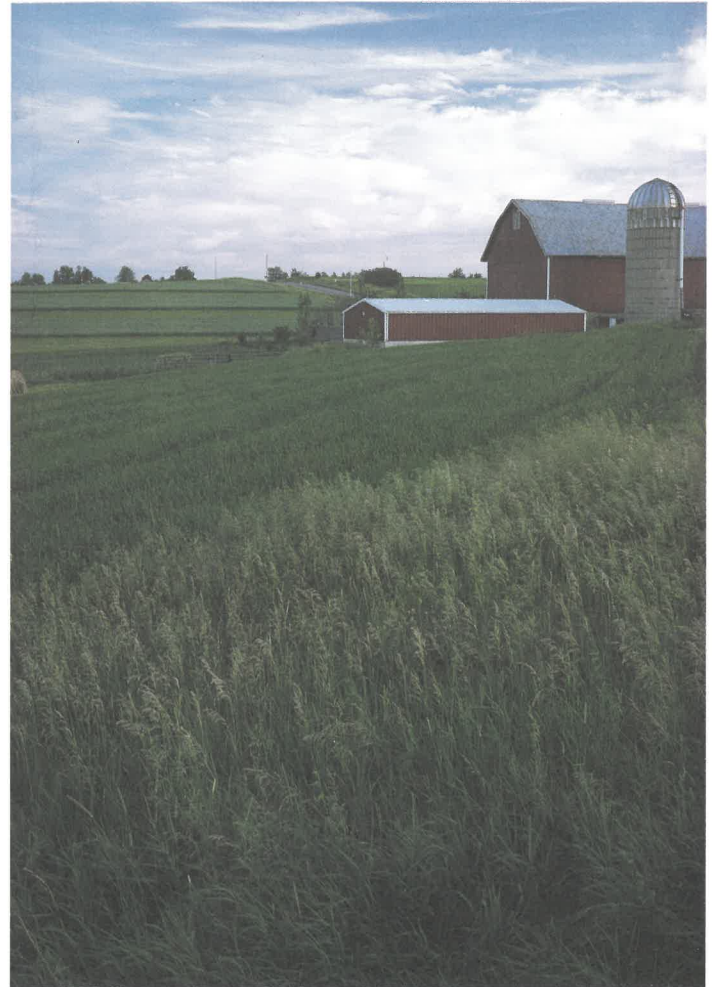

Merv farmed his entire life in Fremont County, moving to Shenandoah in 1959. He was a member of the Fremont County Farm Bureau and a lifetime member of Shenandoah Elks Club #1122. He enjoyed farming and often told stories of his early days on the farm when he ran a thrashing machine. He was often seen tinkering in the shop on the farm, fixing or making something handy. He also enjoyed his many fishing trips to Minnesota and Canada.

Preceding Merv in death were his parents; wife, Alice in 1998; grandson, Carl Richard Scott; and brother, Vern Morhain.

Survivors include his daughters and sons-in-law, Darlene and Darrel Jackson and Phyllis and Richard Scott all of Shenandoah; brother and sister-in-law, Orville and Imogene Morhain of Farragut, Iowa; and eight grandchildren, Dennis Jackson, Deborah Kingsolver, Carol Kirkpatrick, David Jackson, Diane Carpenter, Denise Hutchison, Donna Tiemeyer and John Scott; plus several nieces, nephews and friends.
