Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want:

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituary

Helen Lee, of Shenandoah, went to be with the Lord on August 11, 2004 at the age of 87 years at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska.

Heien was born June 4, 1918 in Sidney, Iowa to Lloyd Emery and Luella Alberta (Ponte) McCain. She attended school at Riverside Country School until entering high school. Helen graduated from Sidney High School with the class of 1937.

Helen was married to Keith Charles Lee on November 24, 1937 in Shenandoah, Iowa. To this union two children were born: Ronald Keith Lee and Sharon Kaye Aistrope. In March of 1947, Keith was drafted into the war and the couple moved to Louisiana. Helen returned to live with her parents when Keith was shipped overseas. When Keith returned, they settled in Shenandoah.

Helen spent the majority of her life as a homemaker, with various small jobs later in her life. She was a very active member of the Memorial Baptist Church. One of Helen's favorite pastimes was completing crossword puzzles.

Helen is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Keith, brother, Bob McCain and sister-in-law, Helen McCain. She is survived by her son, Ron Keith Lee of Billings, Montana and daughter, Sharon Kaye Aistrope of Shenandoah, Iowa; eleven grandchildren; sixteen great grandchildren; brother, Raymond McCain and wife Gloria of Rockford, Illinois; sister-in-laws, Dorothy Hagedorn of Shenandoah, Iowa and Gertrude Lee of Sedalia, Missouri; her church family at Memorial Baptist Church and a host of wonderful friends.
