I Am Not There

Do not stand at my grave and weep; I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift up-lifting rush, Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I did not die. — Robert Hepburn

Bill Greenwalt

Harold "Bill" Guy Greenwalt, the son of Howard and Cecile (Bartles) Greenwalt, was born March 2, 1925, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away December 7, 2002, at the Gardenview Care Center in Shenandoah.

Growing up in Shenandoah, Bill received his education from the Shenandoah school system, graduating from high school in 1943. On December 30, 1944, Bill was united in marriage to Doris "June" Purtle at the Congregational parsonage in Shenandoah. To this union, Deborah, ZoAnna and Claudia were born.

During Bill's working years he was associated with Spurgeon's Department Store, Douglas and Lomason, Henry Field Seed and Nursery Company, Leacox Drug, United States Postal Service and for several years was superintendent of the Company E. Memorial Building in Shenandoah where he retired. He was a member of the First Christian Church and Elks Club #1122 in Shenandoah. Bill's main interest in life was his family. He took great joy in following the activities of his grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Preceding Bill in death were his parents; brother, Miller "Bub" Greenwalt; sister, Mildred Spies; and granddaughter, Janie Hagglund.

Survivors include his wife, June Greenwalt of Shenandoah; daughters and sons-in-law, Deborah and Colonel Lloyd Keeton of Colorado Springs, Colorado, ZoAnna McAdams of Omaha, Nebraska and Claudia and Chuck Brooks of Faragut, Iowa; brothers, Harley Greenwalt of Shenandoah and Larry Greenwalt and his wife, Sandy, of Rio Rancho, New Mexico; and sister, Margaret Kling and her husband, Norman, of Shenandoah. Also surviving are 9 grandchildren, Julie Cassady, Jennifer Keeton, Jill Lofton, Anthony McAdams, Tiffani Caleb, Amy Howard, Claudia Stokes, and Curtis and Craig Brooks plus 10 great grandchildren and other relatives and friends.
