

OBIT WAS SUBMITTED TO CITYHALL RECORDS IN THIS CONDITION

Obituary

Stanley Wayne Bloom, son of David Leroy and Elsie Mae (Dean) Bloom, was born on December 29, 1922, in Shenandoah, Iowa. He attended West Point Grade School and graduated from Northboro High School with the Class of 1942. He spent his early life on the farm in Northboro. From 1943 to 1945 he was with the Veterinary Corp. in the United States Army in Burma, China, and India. On October 18, 1943, he was united in marriage with Phyllis Finley at the Methodist Church parsonage in Tarkio, Missouri. They lived on a farm in Northboro and Stanley was district sales manager for Garst and Thomas Seed Corn Company for 32 years. He was also with Pioneer Hybrid Seed Corn Company of Des Moines, Iowa for five years before his retirement. Stanley was a member of the Northboro Methodist Church, Shenandoah American Legion Post #88, Moose Lodge #405 of Blanchard, Iowa; Moila Lodge, in St. Joseph, Missouri; Scottish Rite of Free Masonry of St. Joseph and a longtime member of the Masonic Lodge. Stanley enjoyed hunting and fishing.

Stanley was preceded in death by his father and mother David and Elsie Bloom. He is survived by his son Michael Robert Bloom of Shenandoah, a son Michael Robert Bloom wife Phyllis Bloom of Northboro, daughter Patricia Bloom and his wife of Omaha, Nebraska, a grandson Ari David Bloom Myers of Wisconsin, granddaughters, Heather Bloom of Madison, and Sarah Bloom-Ray of Madison, Myers of Omaha, a daughter Victoria and Antonio Myers of Omaha, and many friends.

Funeral services will be held at the cemetery, everyone is cordially invited to the Holmes and... at 107 S. Center for a time of refreshment and... ship with the family.

Following the services a... cordially invited to the Holmes... for a time of refreshment and...