The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Isabelle I. Harms

Isabelle Irene Harms, the daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth (Proctor) Ragar, was born January 9, 1917, in Windsor, Missouri, and passed away December 9, 2003, in Sidney, Iowa.

Growing up in Windsor, Isabelle received her education in the Windsor school system. On August 22, 1936, she was united in marriage to Clarence "Dutch" Harms at Glenwood, Iowa, and to this union, Roger, Larry and Debbie were born.

Through the years, Isabelle took care of the family home, baby sat, and worked seasonal at Henry Fields. They lived several years in Shenandoah before moving to Farragut, Iowa. She was a member of the United Methodist Church, Methodist Women's Group, Garden Club, and Golden Key Club of Farragut. Isabelle was an avid reader and enjoyed working cross word puzzles.

Preceding Isabelle in death were her parents; husband; sons, Roger and Larry Harms; brothers, William, George and Earl Ragar; sisters, Edith Boslee, infant Edith, Viola, Pearl and Helen Ragar.

Survivors include her daughter and son in law, Debbie and Gary Whipple of Sidney; grandchildren and their spouses, Jeff and Kim Harms, Scott and Mimi Harms, Amy and Mike Wade, Steven and Kelley Harms, Sarah and Scott Rivera, and Clayton Whipple. Also surviving are daughter-in-law, Juanita Harms of Seattle, Washington; sister, Hazel Whitworth of Clinton, Missouri; sisters-in-law, Doris Odem of San Pablo, California and Lenora Brown of Lincoln, Nebraska; 5 great grandchildren plus other relatives and friends.

*(A luncheon with the family will follow
at the Farragut Methodist Church)*
