

Donna Adine (White) Cramer was born February 22, 1921, in Palco, Kansas to Chester Eugene White and Viola Marie (Mead) White. She passed away April 30, 2005 in Shenandoah, Iowa at the age of 84.

Donna's early life was spent in Palco, Kansas and Shenandoah, Iowa. She graduated from Shenandoah High School in 1938. On September 6, 1938, she was united in marriage to Warren Cramer in Rock Port, Missouri. The couple resided in the Shenandoah area until moving to Fremont, Nebraska in 1963. They returned to the Shenandoah area in 1984.

Donna was employed with Mt. Arbor Nurseries in Shenandoah until moving to Fremont where she worked and retired from Pendelton Woolen Mills. Donna enjoyed crocheting, cross stitching, playing bingo, flowers and visiting with friends and neighbors.

Donna is preceded in death by her parents; her husband; sisters, Vivian, Phyllis, Maxine, Marge and Velda and brothers, Gene and Lester. She is survived by daughter, Kay Woods and husband Merle of Shenandoah, Iowa; daughter, Barbara Jones of Glenwood, Iowa; son, Larry Cramer of Council Bluffs, Iowa; daughter, Evalyn Cole and husband Colin of Leonard, Minnesota; son, Jerry Cramer of Mesa, Arizona; 15 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren, 6 great-great grandchildren; special friend, Betty; and a host of other friends and relatives.

Following the services, you are invited to the Eagles for lunch with the family.