

In Loving Memory
Velma G. Wolfe

Born
January 29, 1909
New Market, Iowa

Entered into Rest
February 13, 2003
Shenandoah, Iowa

Age
94 years, 15 days

Velma G. Wolfe, daughter of William and Lydia Carmichael Sweeten, was born on January 29, 1909, in New Market, Iowa. She attended school there and graduated from the New Market High School in 1929. On September 3, 1930, she was united in marriage with Miller (Mitt) Wolfe in Clarinda, Iowa. Following their marriage they made their home in Shenandoah. She was employed with Swift and Company and worked for Union Carbide in Red Oak, retiring in 1972. Velma was a member of the Congregational Church and the Rebekah Lodge. She enjoyed chalk painting, crocheting, quilting and china painting.

Velma was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Miller, a brother Willis Sweeten and a sister Ruby Peterson. She is survived by her son Dean Wolfe of Shenandoah, nephews John Wolfe and his wife Linda of Shenandoah, Gene Peterson and his wife Margaret, Clair Peterson and his wife Beverly, all of Des Moines, William Gnade and his wife Neoma of Humeston, Iowa, other relatives and many friends.