~~~~~
Love Is A Quilt
A Quilt Is Love

Both love and a quilt should be
Soft enough to comfort you
Generous enough to enfold you
Light enough to let you move freely
Strong enough to withstand adversity
Durable enough to last a life-time
And given gladly from the heart.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Reta M. Evans

Reta Mildred Evans, the daughter of Joseph and Bessie (Horn) Wheeler, was born June 29, 1918, in Livonia, Missouri and passed away December 11, 2000. She was the second child of six in her family. Reta grew up in Livonia and received her education in Livonia and Lancaster school system where she graduated from high school.

On October 12, 1940, at Livonia, Reta was united in marriage to Leo (Red) Evans. That same year, they moved to Shenandoah, Iowa and to this union, Ronnie was born.

Reta, her husband and son were active members of the Nishna Valley Saddle Club and she had remained a member until her death. She worked at Earl May Seed and was over the Shoe Department at Pamida until her retirement in 1983. She enjoyed reading and making beautiful quilts. She also stayed in close touch with her many friends at coffee groups. She loved the town of Shenandoah and was proud to live here. She will be greatly missed.

Preceding Reta in death were her parents; husband; Leo; four brothers, Alvie, James, Lewis Max and J. D. Wheeler.

Survivors include her son, Ronnie Evans and wife, Sharon of Council Bluffs, Iowa; Granddaughter, Hollie McKenzie and husband, Matt of Council Bluffs; Grandson, Scott Evans of Council Bluffs; a sister, Erma Urich of Chula, Missouri
