To The Family

Sheila Jean Miller, daughter of Elmer Oren and Edith Minerva (Kessell) Irvin, was born December 24, 1957 in Mt. Ayr, Iowa. She went home to be with her Lord on Tuesday, January 9, 2018 passing away at her home in Shenandoah, Iowa at the age of 60.

Growing up Sheila was the youngest child, living with her parents and brothers, Oren and James, and her sister Sondra on a farm in Athelston, Iowa. When she was 2 ½ the family moved to Shenandoah then when she was 8 the family moved to Imogene. Sheila lost her mother when she was only 13 and lost her father at the age of 21.

In the late 1970's Sheila was married to Charles Netherton for a brief time. In 1982 Sheila met John Richard Miller and they were married at the Riverwalk in San Antonio, Texas in 1986. Sheila lost John Tuesday, June 10, 2014.

Sheila was worked as a nurse's aide, a bartender, and a telemarketer during her many years of employment. In her most recent years Sheila was retired and enjoyed going to garage sales, thrift stores, bingo and gambling. Sheila also enjoyed collecting figurines of turtles and toads as she called John "my little Toader." She enjoyed going out dancing with John and never missed a chance to dance with him to the song "Good Hearted Woman." Sheila and John lived their lives together in Shenandoah, IA and Logan, IA. They were able to travel to many different states including Hawaii. One of their favorite places to spend the winter was Apache Junction, Arizona.
