Blanche Vera Winters age 98, was born on October 6, 1904 in Boone, Iowa, the daughter of John Frank and Belle Moreland Winters. At a young age she moved to the Farragut, Iowa area where her parents farmed. She was educated in rural schools and graduated from Farragut High School. She along with her family farmed in the rural Farragut and Shenandoah areas all her life. Blanche was a very independent person and always knew what she wanted. She loved going to garage sales and looking for that one "special bargain". Preceding her in death were her parents, two brothers, Donald and Claude Winters, and a sister Violet Rhoades along with a nephew John C. Winters. Survivors include her great niece Shelley Bilodeau; great nephews, Jeffrey Winters, Donald Winters, Jan Kevin Winters all of Omaha, Nebraska, John Winters in New Mexico and Philip Winters of Jacksonville, Arkansas, along with a host of friends. Blanche passed away this past Friday, August 22, 2003 at the Tabor Manor Care Center in Tabor, Iowa where she had been a resident since 1993.
