Sybil L. Blank

Sybil Louise Blank, the daughter of Henry and Daisey M. (Mulkey) Birkman, was born October 27, 1917, in Dongoli, IL, and departed this life December 23, 1999 in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Sybil grew up in Shenandoah and received her education in the Shenandoah school system, graduating in 1936. On September 18, 1937 she married Ernest Blank in Rock Port, MO and to this union, Phyllis, Edwin and Ernest, Jr. were born. They lived in Shenandoah where Sybil enjoyed providing a home for her family. She enjoyed attending the Faith Christian Fellowship Church plus phone calling and making personal visits to the elderly and ill people at home. Sybil and Ernie often picked up kids so they could come to church and Sunday school, which was an enjoyable part of their Sunday worship.

Preceding Sybil in death were her parents, Henry and Daisey Birkman.

Survivors include her husband, Ernest Blank of Shenandoah; children, Phyllis Miles and husband, Ronald, of Omaha, NE, Edwin Blank and wife, Barbara, of Shenandoah, Ernest Blank, Jr. and wife, Ann, of St. Louis, MO; ten grandchildren; and 11 great grandchildren.
