The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Alice M. Thomason

Alice Mae Thomason, the daughter of William D. and Edith M. (Boone) Skinner, was born May 3, 1932, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away January 24, 2001, in Omaha, Nebraska.

Alice grew up in Shenandoah and received her education in the Shenandoah school system. On September 19, 1949, she was united in marriage to Roy Thomason and to this union, Sue, Robert and Kathy were born. In 1955 they moved to Denver, Colorado, where they lived for 35 years. During that time Alice cooked at various eating establishments. In 1989 they returned to Shenandoah where they retired. Alice continued working being employed by Accent Insurance Recovery. She enjoyed crocheting, making dolls and especially spending time with her family.

Preceding Alice in death were her parents and a son, Roy David Thomason.

Alice is survived by her husband, Roy Thomason, of Shenandoah; daughter, Sue Regnerus, and husband, Jack, of Shenandoah; son, Robert Thomason and wife, Cindy, of Selby, S.D.; daughter, Kathy Looper and husband, Chad, of Shenandoah; brothers, Willard Skinner and wife, Lillian, of Shenandoah and Merrill Skinner and wife, Marvel, also of Shenandoah; six grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.
