

Obituary

Blanche Louise Racine Flynn, daughter of William G. and Anna Pearl Caudle Racine, was born on September 16, 1922, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska on February 17, 2002. She was 79 years of age. Blanche lived in and around Shenandoah all her life. She was united in marriage to Willis Flynn on October 3, 1941, and to this union three children were born, Marlene, Patricia Sue and Thomas. They lived on farms in the area until 1962, when they moved to Shenandoah. Blanche was in the income tax business for 40 years before retiring in 1987. She enjoyed reading, crocheting and working crossword puzzles. She and her husband enjoyed camping, dancing, bluegrass music and music festivals. They made many friends throughout the years.

Blanche was preceded in death by her parents, a daughter Patricia Sue, a sister Pearl Waldron, and four brothers, George, Wayne, Clarence and Roy. She is survived by her husband Willis, a son Thomas Flynn, both of Shenandoah; a daughter Marlene McLaren and her husband Dick of Spirit Lake, IA; a sister Margaret of Westboro, MO; seven grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, other relatives and many friends.
