

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

In Loving Memory
Carol Faye Hankins

Carol Faye (Schneekloth) Hankins, daughter of Harold and Freyda (Hinrichsen) Schneekloth was born on October 4, 1934, at the old Ute hospital in Ute, Iowa. She entered into eternal peace on Saturday, June 12, 2021, at the Shenandoah Medical Center at the age of 87 years, 8 months, 8 days.

In her early years she began working for Henry Fields Nurseries while obtaining her G.E.D. Later, she worked many years as a waitress for the Tall Corn Motel. When she decided to slow down, she worked part-time as a caregiver for those confined at home.

Her special interests were attending all family reunions, which she loved dearly. Carol also enjoyed reading murder mystery books and spending time looking for antiquities, especially Carnival Glass and Hurricane Lamps. But her greatest joy was going on vacations with her family and spending time with her beloved grandchildren.

Preceding Carol in death were her parents; sisters, Patricia Cronkhite, Arla Holman, and Joan Davis and nephew Rodney Beck.

Left to cherish her memory are her son, John Priest; grandsons, Michael Priest, Bradley Priest, Christopher (Stephanie) Priest, Nicholas Priest and Nathan Priest; great grandchildren, Greg, Josh, Nicole, McKenna, Harry, Elaina and Emma; one great grandchild; two brothers, Gene (Janet) Schneekloth and Phillip (Deborah) Schneekloth; other relatives; and many friends.
