Colene K. Malmberg

Colene Kay Malmberg, the daughter of Milton F. and Edna B. (Heiden) Ahrens, was born January 11, 1943, in Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away January 4, 2002 at her home in Shenandoah.

Colene grew up in Shenandoah and received her education in the Shenandoah school system, graduating from high school in 1961. On October 27, 1961, Colene was united in marriage to Ronald Malmberg and to this union four children, Rhonda, Patty, Julie and Jeff were born.

For 22 years, Colene worked at the Weekly Times. She was known to be a fabulous cook and enjoyed holidays and all the food preparations, but especially having her family around her during those special times. She also enjoyed reading and traveling. She was a friendly person who enjoyed people. She was close to her mother, Edna, and was pleased that they lived so close to each other. Colene's caring nature was shown many times, as she was always there to care for her family. They gave great meaning to her life. She so loved her family, especially her five grandchildren and had a strong trust in the Lord. Colene was a lifetime member of Trinity Lutheran Church.

Preceding Colene in death was her father, Milton Ahrens.

Survivors include her husband, Ron, of Shenandoah; children, Rhonda Elming and husband, Mark, of Johnston, Iowa, Patty Throne and husband, Steve, Julie Malmberg, and Jeff Malmberg and wife, Amy, all from Nebraska City, NE; mother, Edna Ahrens of Shenandoah; five grandchildren; brother, Bob Ahrens and wife, Karen, of Shenandoah; five sisters and their husbands, Twila and Leonard Hutchison of Shenandoah, Rexine and Jerry Burroughs of Farragut, Iowa, Pam and Frank Malzer of Nebraska City, Donis and Harlan White of Red Oak, Iowa and Elva and Paul Bramble of Rock Port, Missouri plus many nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.
