

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

Carolyn M. Sederburg

Carolyn Mae Sederburg, daughter of John Wilbur and Leota Mae (Greever) Herold, was born on August 2, 1941, in Shenandoah, Iowa. She entered into eternal rest on Tuesday morning, February 7, 2023, at Jennie Edmundson Hospital in Council Bluffs, Iowa, at the age of 81 years, 6 months, 5 days.

Her early life was spent growing up in Shenandoah, where she attended the Shenandoah Community Schools, graduating from Shenandoah High School with the Class of 1959.

She was blessed with a daughter, Kim Renea.

Through the years, Carolyn worked at the Home Café, Waldorf Café and the Henry Field Seed and Nursery Company. She later went to work for Eaton Corporation until her retirement.

After retirement, she enjoyed attending and volunteering at the First Baptist Church in Shenandoah. Always an animal lover, she also volunteered at People For Paws and at the local Red Cross Blood Drive (Carolyn was a frequent donor herself). Carolyn was a huge football fan, and her two favorite teams were the Green Bay Packers and the Kansas City Chiefs. If you needed anything during either of these two teams playing, you would just have to wait until they were finished. To say she was a diehard fan is an understatement... She referred to the Packers' Aaron Rodgers as her son and the Chiefs' Patrick Mahomes as her grandson.

Preceding Carolyn in death were her parents; brother, Johnie Herold; and sister, Joyce Falk. Left to cherish her memory are her daughter, Kim Sederburg of Essex, IA; sister, Marvis Henry of Loveland, CO; brother, Raymond Herold and wife Judy of Shenandoah, IA; numerous nieces and nephews; other relatives; her beloved cat, Ivan; and many friends.
