

John 14:27

Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you;
not as the world gives do I give to you.
Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid.

1. I'm just a wea-ry pil-grim, Plod-ding thru this world of sin;
2. My fa-ther loved the Sav-ior, What a sol-dier he had been!
3. And moth-er, may God bless her, I can see her now, as then;
4. Up there I'll see the Sav-ior Who redeemed my soul from sin,

Get-ting read-y for that ci-ty When the saints go march-ing in.
But his steps will be more steady
With a robe of white a-round her
With ex-tend-ed hands He'll greet me      Saints go march-ing

CHORUS
When the saints go march-ing in,      When the saints go
When the saints march-ing in,      Saints go march-ing in;      Lord I want to be in that march-ing go march-ing in O

num-ber      When the saints go march-ing in.
that number,      Saints go march-ing go march-ing in.
count-less number,

David Joe Drake, son of Ralph Graydon and Ruth Hillis (Hawk) Drake, was born on June 19, 1939 in Lincoln, Nebraska. He passed away on June 17, 2021 at the VA Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska.

Joe was raised in Shenandoah, Iowa. He graduated from the Shenandoah High School with the class of 1957. Following high school he joined the U.S. Air Force. He proudly served his country until he was honorably discharged in 1961.

On August 24, 1962, Joe was united in marriage to Toni Ann Harris in Clarinda, Iowa. They resided in Clarinda, Iowa. They also lived, for a short time, in Kansas City, before heading to Washington state for work.

While in Washington, he attended Seattle University in 1968. For over the next thirty years, he was a dedicated employee for Consolidated Freightways as an administrator in Seattle, Washington and Boise, Idaho. Upon retirement, Joe and Toni returned to Page County.

Joe loved music, he was a member of the Shenandoah High School Band and he played the clarinet in the Air Force. He was a member of the St. John's Episcopal Church of Shenandoah and member of The American Legion.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents Ralph and Ruth Drake, brothers Roger Drake, Leland (Dorothy) Drake and Donald Drake.

Joe is survived by his wife of 58 years, Toni Ann Drake of Shenandoah, Iowa; son Christopher David Drake and wife Amanda of Nampa, Idaho and their sons Asa, Zachary, Emerson, Spensor and Vaughn and their children Ayden, Huxley, Kaycee, Leon and Ashten; daughter Jo Ellen Drake Braymen and husband Joel of El Paso, Texas and their children Adam David Drake and Sophia Drake Braymen; brother Hugh Drake and wife Rosemary of West Des Moines, Iowa; numerous nieces, nephews, other family and friends.
