The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Grace E. Puckett

Grace Ellen Puckett, age 97, the daughter of Reuben C. and Mary Ann (Walters) Ashbaugh, was born December 4, 1907, at Bingham, Iowa, and passed away December 31, 2004, in Omaha, Nebraska. Growing up near Shenandoah, Grace attended grade school at Lone Rock Country School and graduated from Shenandoah High School in 1925. She then attended State Teachers College in Cedar Falls, Iowa for two years before returning to teach for one year at Lone Rock Country School.

On August 21, 1928, in Clarinda, Iowa, Grace was united in marriage to Alvin Puckett and to this union, Shirley and Roger were born. Through the years Grace enjoyed having her family around her and was known for her great family dinners. She liked going on picnics, fishing with Alvin and often got up early in the morning to help Alvin attend his trap line. She also enjoyed crewel stitching and knitting. At Christmas time, Alvin would hook up their one horse sleigh and off they would go to her folks to join the family at Bingham.

Grace was a member of First United Methodist Church in Coin, Iowa, Norwich, Iowa, and later in Shenandoah, where she was an active member of her women's circle. She was past president of American War Mothers and participated in the Athenaeum Study Club. For several years she was active as a leader in 4-H and often times volunteered at the Shenandoah Hospital gift shop.

Preceding Grace in death were her parents; husband, Alvin in 2001; grandson, Jimmie Flotho; brothers, Ralph and Lester Ashbaugh; and sister, Mildred Ashbaugh.

Survivors include her daughter, Shirley Inzauro of Omaha; son, Roger Puckett of Shenandoah; granddaughter, Tamera G. Joice and husband, Charley, of Ft. Collins, Colorado; three great grandchildren, Lucas and Laura Joice and John Flotho; other relatives and friends.
