Age

88 years, 10 months, 28 days

James "Jim" Volner, son of William and Della Volner, was born on March 4, 1914, on a farm near Mountain Grove, Missouri. Jim's family included four brothers; Alfred, Harvey, Hervey and Orville, and six sisters; Oma, Emma, Cora, Annabell, Faye and Opal. Jim attended school for a few years before quitting to help his father on the farm. On March 4, 1937, he was united in marriage to Cellia Whited in Houston, Missouri. To this union six children were born. Jim enjoyed coon hunting, fishing, gardening and canning what he had produced. Due to health problems the past two years he had entered Garden View Care Center in January 2001. He was active in the Assembly of God Church where he attended for 40 years praying and praising God and helping people in the church.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, two sisters, two granddaughters and two grandsons. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Cellia Volner and their six children, Berneice Walker and her husband Bill of Springfield, Oregon; Howard Volner and his wife Nancy of Pierce, Colorado, Elsie Roberts of Springfield, Missouri, Jack Volner and his wife Violet of Springfield, Oregon; Kenneth Volner and his wife Mary of Eugene, Oregon, and David Volner and his wife Carla of Shenandoah; four sisters, Cora of California, Opal of Springfield, Faye of Mountain Grove, Annabell of Roseburg, Oregon, 21 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren, other relatives and many friends.
