I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid, you see,
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play,
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys;
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I, too, will miss...
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow,
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, A loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief;
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now - He set me free.*

Virginia M. Tillman

Virginia M. Tillman, the daughter of Clinton L. and Dora A. (Morelock) Hutt, was born July 30, 1918, near Blanchard, Missouri, and passed away January 24, 2004, in Shenandoah, Iowa.

Until the age of seven, Virginia lived on a farm with her family near Blanchard. They then moved to Shenandoah where she received her education in the Shenandoah school system. On December 7, 1935, in Rock Port, Missouri, she was united in marriage to Orville Tillman, and to this union, Marlin and Dennis were born.

They lived on a farm east of Shenandoah until 1974 when they moved to town. During her working years, Virginia was a homemaker, assisted Orville on the farm, and later worked at Henry Fields, Ladies Apparel, and Killions Decorating.

Virginia was a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, enjoyed studying about antiques, oil, and water painting, sketching, writing and reading, and working crossword puzzles. She was known to be a great cook and when family or friends would visit her, she would see to it that they were fed. But most of all, Virginia loved her family and enjoyed being with them when ever possible.

Preceding Virginia in death were her parents and her husband in 1990.

Survivors include her sons and daughters-in-law, Marlin and Mary Jo Tillman and Dennis and Rosamond Tillman of Shenandoah; grandchildren, Dawn Millikan and husband, Mike, of Omaha, Nebraska, Douglas Tillman and wife, Teri, of Omaha, John Tillman of Las Vegas, Nevada and Todd Carr of McKinney, Texas; and one great grandchild, Michaela Millikan of Omaha. Also surviving is a brother, J.C. Hutt and wife, Polly, of Cleveland, Texas; sister-in-law, Marjorie Quist; nephews, Doug Quist of Shenandoah and Randy Quist of Red Oak, Iowa; plus other relatives and friends.
