Footprints

One night I had a dream. I was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the skies flashed scenes from my life. In each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand. One was mine, and one was the Lord's.

When the last scene of my life appeared before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand, and to my surprise I noticed that many times along the path of my life there was only one set of footprints. And I noticed that it was at the lowest and saddest times in my life.

I asked the Lord about it. “Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way. But I noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why you left my side when I needed you the most.”

The Lord replied, “My precious child, I love you and would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, where you see only one set of footprints, I was carrying you.”

Dorothy M. Steinkamp

Dorothy "Dottie" Marie Steinkamp, age 74, the daughter of Walter and Clara Bell (Freeman) Anderson was born December 24, 1930, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and passed away April 9, 2005, in Savannah, Missouri.

After spending her younger years in Oklahoma City, Dottie moved with her family to the Clarinda, Iowa area, where she attended school graduating from high school in 1948. On July 13, 1952, Dottie was united in marriage to James E. Steinkamp at the United Methodist Church in Clarinda and to this union Steven, Vicki and James were born.

As a young adult, Dottie worked for the J.C. Penny's credit department in Kansas City, Missouri, before moving to Shenandoah, Iowa, where she worked for various businesses. For 19 ½ years she was employed at Shenandoah City Hall in the City Clerks Department.

Dottie enjoyed reading and working with flowers in her yard. She was often found out on the golf course playing golf with Jim or her friends. She looked forward to spending time with her friends at coffee in the morning and afternoon. Dottie took special interest in her grandchildren and family.

She was a very active member of St. John's Episcopal Church in Shenandoah and later at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Savannah, where she and Jim lived for the past three years. Dottie also enjoyed her membership in the American Legion Auxiliary while in Shenandoah.

Preceding Dottie in death were her parents; son, Steven J. Steinkamp; and brother, Charles Anderson.

Surviving is her husband, James E. Steinkamp of Savannah; daughter and son-in-law, Vicki and Roger Wageman of Omaha, Nebraska; son and daughter-in-law, James S. and Tammy Steinkamp of Savannah; and twin brother, Robert Anderson of Salida, Colorado. Also surviving are her three grandchildren, Cody Tjards and Taylor Wageman of Omaha and Alexandria Steinkamp of Savannah; plus other relatives and friends.
