The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

James E. Steinkamp

James Ernest Steinkamp, age 73, the son of John Henry and Esther Luella (Griffey) Steinkamp was born September 8, 1931, at Shenandoah, Iowa, and passed away May 4, 2005, in Savannah, Missouri.

Growing up near Farragut, Iowa, Jim graduated from Farragut High School in 1949. On January 9, 1951, he entered into the United States Navy serving his country during the Korean Conflict until November 2, 1954. On July 13, 1952, Jim was united in marriage to Dorthy Anderson at the United Methodist Church in Clarinda, Iowa, and to this union Steven, Vicki and James were born.

Through the years Jim worked as a bar tender at the American Legion Country Club, was associated with the Iowa Finance Company, farmed, owned and operated his own trucking company, hauling grain and livestock and for several years was a painting contractor.

Jim was a member of American Legion Post #88 in Shenandoah, Elks Lodge #1122, Saint John's Episcopal Church in Shenandoah and Saint Mary's Episcopal Church in Savannah. Jim took pride in caring for his yard, could often be found on the golf course with Dottie and his friends, but most of all he enjoyed when he could spend time with his children and grandchildren.

Preceding Jim in death were his parents; wife Dorthy, April 9, 2005, and son, Steven.

Survivors include his daughter and son-in-law, Vicki and Roger Wageman of Omaha, Nebraska; son and daughter-in-law, James S. and Tammy Steinkamp of Savannah. Also surviving are three grandchildren, Cody Tjards and Taylor Wageman of Omaha, and Alexandria Steinkamp of Savannah; and a sister and brother-in-law, Carol and Lee "Russ" Borland of The Villages, Florida, plus other relatives and friends.
